

UNIVERSITÄT
LEIPZIG

Institut für Ethnologie
Institut für Afrikastudien

Infrastructure

Lecture series hosted by the Institute of Anthropology and the Institute of African Studies

Venue: Hörsaal 4, Hörsaalgebäude, Universität Leipzig, Universitätsstr. 3

8.4. 5-7pm – Dirk van Laak (Universität Leipzig)

Infrastrukturgeschichte: Potentiale und Grenzen eines Forschungsfeldes (in German)

15.4. 5-7pm – Asta Vonderau (MLU Halle)

Infrastructuring Connectivity: Anthropology in/of Data Saturated Worlds

29.4. 5-7pm – Damilola Adebayo (St. John's College, Cambridge)

"Consuming Power": The Socioeconomic Impact of Electricity in Colonial Nigeria, 1896-1960

6.5. 5-7pm – Mariusz Lukasiewicz (Universität Leipzig)

The Financial Infrastructure of Southern Africa's Mining Frontier, 1880-1910

13.5. 5-7pm – Robert Heinze (Universität Bern)

What makes an Infrastructure Informal? Public Transport, Neoliberal Regulation, and Agency in African Cities

20.5. 5-7pm – Wladimir Sgibnev (IfL Leipzig)

Marshrutka Mobility Infrastructures: Regulations, Materialities, Fluidities

27.5. 5-7pm – Lela Rekhviashvili (IfL Leipzig)

Marshrutka Mobility Infrastructures: Marketisation, Social Embeddedness, Informality

3.6. 5-7pm – Lukas Ley (Universität Heidelberg)

Temporalities of Sinking: Indonesian Coastal Cities and the Sea

17.6. 5-7pm – Sheila Jasanoff (Harvard University)

Scaling the Imagination: Futures, Frictions, and Fallacies of Globalization

24.6. 5-7pm – Ingmar Lippert (Museum für Naturkunde Berlin)

Infrastructuring Environments: Capitalism, Governance and Datascapes

1.7. 5-7pm – Lisa Björkman (University of Louisville)

Natak: Political Theatre and Political Deceit in Mumbai

8.7. 5-7pm – Ayona Datta (King's College, London)

Intimate Infrastructures: Gendered Power and Slow Violence in the Margins of Urban India

